

Restoring HOPE
Changing Lives

We are Hiring!

Consultancy: Document Project Demonstration of the inclusion and provision of counselling services for Key Population (KP) through the LifeLine ChildLine (LLCL) Call Centre helplines

Duration: 35 Days (01 April 2022- 05 May 2022)

Objective of Assignment: To document lesson learned, challenges, and recommendations that can inform scale up opportunities for the call centre.

Experience and Qualifications:

- A degree (or higher education) in, Sociology, Monitoring and Evaluation, Psychology or any relevant field.
- Additional qualifications in Human Right Studies will be of an advantage
- Experience in research, data collection, indicator analysis, and report writing
- Experience in applied qualitative/quantitative research techniques

Application Deadline: 23 March 2022

Location: Windhoek

Please click on the link for further information:

https://www.lifelinechildline.org.na/wp-content/uploads/2022/03/LILO-Call-Centre-Documentation-ToR_Final.pdf

Special Note: Respect for diversity is one of the core values of the LLCL, thus, Women, Persons with Disabilities and KPs are encouraged to apply.